  - (b) the contents of expressions of interest, pre-qualification applications, bids, proposals, note-taking books, minutes of bid evaluation meetings, comments or remarks on each expression of interest, pre-qualification application, bid or proposal after the contractor selection result is published;
  - (c) a request for clarification of bids or proposal made by the procuring entity and responses to those requests submitted by bidders during the bid evaluation process after publication of the contractor selection results;
  - (d) reports made by the procuring entity, by the evaluation team, appraisal reports, reports of consultants or other related reports in the selection process after publication of the contractor selection results; and

(e) other relevant documents in the selection process that are marked “confidential” in accordance with this Act, or other written law.

15. (1) An office holder, or that office holder’s relative, shall not participate as a bidder in a procurement by a procuring entity by which the office holder is employed.

Restriction on office holders

(2) A person who served as a procurement officer or participated in the approval of a procurement or execution of a procurement contract shall not participate—

(a) in any manner, except as an officer, employee, agent or representative of a supplier, in negotiations or technical discussions leading to the award, modification or extension of the contract for that procurement; or

(b) personally or substantially on behalf of a supplier in the performance of that procurement contract.

(3) The restriction under subsection (2) shall remain in effect for the duration of the procurement proceedings or procurement contract, concerned.

16. (1) A procuring entity shall use the electronic government procurement system or any other electronic procurement system that the Minister may, by statutory instrument, prescribe.

Use of information and communication technologies

(2) Subject to subsection (1), the electronic government procurement system or any other electronic procurement system shall provide for—

(a) publication of bidding documents, notices and invitations to tender;

(b) submission and opening of tenders;

(c) bid evaluation;

(d) requests for information on the tender process;

(e) publication of changes in tender documents and explanations for those changes, if any;

(f) publication of procurement contracts subject to the confidentiality provisions under section 20;

(g) publication of notices of amendments to procurement contracts subject to the confidentiality provisions under section 20;

(h) reporting on the award and performance of procurement contracts;

(i) dissemination of laws, regulations and directives on public procurement; or

(j) digital signatures.

(3) The Minister shall prescribe the manner of procurement proceedings relating to the matters under subsection (2).

Form of communication
and advertisements

17. (1) A communication between parties to a procurement proceeding shall be in writing or in form of a data message that provides a record of the content of the information that is accessible and usable for subsequent reference.

(2) A procuring entity shall take steps that are reasonable to bring the invitation to tender to the attention of those who may wish to submit a tender.

(3) A procuring entity shall advertise an invitation to tender—

(a) on the Government portal or a portal dedicated to tenders set up by the Authority;

(b) in electronic advertisement as prescribed;

(c) by posting an advert at a conspicuous place reserved for this purpose in the premises of the procuring entity;

(d) in a notice published in at least two daily newspapers of general circulation in the Republic or in the Gazette; or

(e) in a foreign newspaper or journal if it is an international bidding or selection method of procurement.

Inappropriate influence on evaluations and other matters

18. (1) A bidder shall not, after the deadline for the submission of bids, proposals or quotations, make unsolicited communications to the procuring entity or any person involved in the procurement proceedings that might reasonably be construed as an attempt to influence the evaluation and comparison of tenders, proposals or quotations.

(2) A person shall not influence, or attempt to influence, an evaluation and comparison of a bid, proposal or quotation.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence.

- (4) Despite subsection (2) where—
  - (a) a bidder contravenes subsection (1), that bidder is disqualified from participating in any existing or future procurement proceeding; or
  - (b) an office holder contravenes subsection (1), that office holder is subject to disciplinary action.

19. (1) A person shall not engage or be involved in a corrupt, coercive, obstructive, collusive or fraudulent practice or conflicts of interest in any procurement proceeding.

Corrupt,
coercive,
obstructive,
collusive or fraudulent practice and conflict of interest

(2) A procuring entity may, where a contract has been entered into in contravention of subsection (1), void the contract and seek other legal remedies available to the procuring entity, including the institution of criminal proceedings or a civil action for recovery of any sums the procuring entity may have paid under the contract.

(3) An employee or agent of the procuring entity or a member of the Board or committee of the procuring entity who has a conflict of interest with respect to a procurement shall not—

- (a) take part in the procurement proceedings;
- (b) after a procurement contract is entered into, take part in any decision relating to the procurement or contract; or
- (c) be a subcontractor for the bidder to whom the contract is awarded, or a member of the group of bidders to whom the contract was awarded.

(4) An employee, agent or member referred to in subsection (3) who refrains from doing anything prohibited under that subsection and who except for that subsection, would have been within that employee, agent or member's duties shall disclose the conflict of interest to the procuring entity.

(5) A procuring entity shall terminate a contract awarded to a person involved in corrupt, coercive, obstructive, collusive or fraudulent practice or who has an undeclared conflict of interest in any procurement proceedings.

(6) For the purposes of this section, a person has a conflict of interest with respect to a procurement if that person or a relative of that person—

- (a) seeks, or has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in another person who seeks, a contract for the procurement; or

(b) owns or has a right in any property or has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest that results in the private interest of the person conflicting with that person's duties with respect to the procurement.

(7) The ownership of, or right in, any property under subsection (6) does not include rights arising by virtue of owning shares in publicly listed companies.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (6), the following are persons seeking a contract for a procurement:

(a) a person submitting a tender, proposal or quotation; or

(b) if direct bidding procurement is being used, a person with whom the procuring entity is negotiating.

(9) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence.

(10) A person convicted of an offence under this section shall, in addition to the penalty imposed by the court, be disqualified from participating in a procurement proceeding for five years from the date of conviction.

Confidentiality
Act No. 46
of 2010

20. (1) Subject to the Financial Intelligence Centre Act 2010 and any other written law, an office holder shall keep confidential the information that comes into the office holder's possession relating to procurement proceedings and to bids, including any bidder's proprietary information.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), a procuring entity shall not, except where required to do so by an order of court or the disclosure is made to the Authority under this Act, disclose any information relating to procurement proceedings and bids where the disclosure would—

(a) amount to a contravention of the law;

(b) obstruct law enforcement;

(c) prejudice the legitimate commercial interests of the parties;

(d) inhibit fair competition in public procurement; or

(e) in anyway be contrary to public interest.

(3) A person who contravenes a provision of this section commits an offence.

21. (1) A procuring entity shall keep records of each procurement for at least ten years after the resulting contract is completed or, where a contract is not awarded, after the procurement proceedings is terminated.

Procurement records

- (2) The records of a procurement shall include—
- (a) a brief description of the goods, works or services being procured;
  - (b) if a procedure other than open tendering was used, the reasons for doing so;
  - (c) if, as part of the procurement procedure, anything was advertised in a newspaper or other publication, a copy of that advertisement as it appeared in that newspaper or publication;
  - (d) for each bid, proposal or quotation that was submitted—
    - (i) the name and address of the person making the submission;
    - (ii) the price, or basis of determining the price, and a summary of the other principal terms and conditions of the bid, proposal or quotation; and
    - (iii) a summary of the proceedings of the opening of bids, evaluation and comparison of the bids, proposals or quotations, including the evaluation criteria used as prescribed;
  - (e) if the procurement proceedings were terminated without resulting in a contract, an explanation of why they were terminated;
  - (f) a copy of a document that the procuring entity is required to prepare under this Act; and
  - (g) any other information or document that may be prescribed.
- (3) Where a contract is awarded to any person or the procurement proceedings are terminated, the procuring entity shall, on request, make a record of the procurement proceedings for—
- (a) a person who submitted a bid, proposal or quotation;
  - (b) an interested member of the public where that information held is aligned to the principle of public interest or is information that may be accessed under any other relevant written law; or

(c) a person with whom the procuring entity was negotiating where the direct bidding procurement method was used.

(4) A procuring entity shall maintain a proper filing system with clear links between procurement and expenditure files that facilitate an audit trail.

Procurement approvals

22. (1) An approval relating to any procedure in procurement shall be properly dated, documented and filed.

(2) A procuring entity shall furnish a controlling officer or chief executive officer, for the purposes of approving an urgent procurement need, with adequate evidence to verify the urgency as may be prescribed.

(3) A procuring entity shall maintain specimen signatures of persons authorised to make approvals within the procurement process.

(4) The individual signatories and controlling officer or chief executive officer shall be responsible for each approval made in the procurement process, whether or not the authority is delegated.

Stakeholder feedback

23. The Authority shall put in place mechanisms to facilitate the receipt of feedback from stakeholders on electronic submissions, detecting violations of this Act, deficiencies in the website or the portal set up by the Authority and on contract performance to the procuring entities.

PART IV

PROCURING ENTITIES

Composition of procuring entities

24. For the purposes of this Act, a procuring entity consists of a—

(a) controlling officer or chief executive officer;

(b) Procurement Committee;

(c) Procurement Unit; and

(d) user department.

Functions of procuring entities

25. (1) A procuring entity is responsible for the management of procurement within that procuring entity in accordance with this Act.

(2) Procurement and stores management shall be carried out by a person who is a member of the Zambia Institute of Purchasing and Supply.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

26. (1) Despite anything to the contrary contained in any written law, where any commitment or expenditure is incurred on any procurement, a controlling officer or chief executive officer of a procuring entity shall ensure that the procurement is in accordance with this Act.

Duties and responsibilities of controlling officer or chief executive officer

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the functions of a controlling officer or chief executive officer are to—

- (a) ensure, prior to any procurement activity, that procurements of goods, works and services of the procuring entity are within the approved budget of that entity;
- (b) constitute a Procurement Committee in a procuring entity in accordance with this Act;
- (c) ensure that procurement plans are prepared in conformity with the policy objectives of the Government agency, parastatal body or any other body or unit mandated by Government to carry out those procurement activities;
- (d) ensure proper documentation of procurement proceedings and safe custody of procurement records in accordance with the Act;
- (e) authorise contract awards which fall within the controlling officer's or chief executive officer's level of authority;
- (f) approve and sign contracts of the procuring entity;
- (g) ensure the procurement processes of the procuring entity comply with this Act;
- (h) ensure that the procurement processes are handled by different professional offices in respect of initiation, processing, procurements, and receipt of goods, works and services;
- (i) ensure that procurement processes are within the approved budget of the procuring entity and are planned by the procuring entity concerned through an annual procurement plan unless otherwise changed by approval;

(j) ensure that minutes of the Procurement Committee meetings are prepared and submitted to the Authority within seven days of the date of the meeting at which they are to be confirmed; and

(k) ensure that reports required by the Authority are prepared and submitted to the Authority.

(3) An office holder is responsible for the office holder's actions and omissions in the performance of that office holder's procurement function.

27. (1) A procuring entity shall establish a Procurement Committee consisting of the following members:

Establishment
and composition
of
Procurement
Committee

(a) the controlling officer or chief executive officer, as chairperson;

(b) not less than four and not more than eight members appointed by the controlling officer or chief executive officer in writing;

(c) the head of Procurement, as an ex-officio and secretary to the Procurement Committee; and

(d) the head of finance.

(2) A procurement committee shall, in the performance of a procurement function under this Act, establish systems and procedures to facilitate decision making for procurement processes.

(3) The procedures required under subsection (2) shall be consistent with this Act.

(4) The members under subsection (1) (b) shall be officers of the procuring entity, except that a maximum of two persons who are not public officers of the procuring entity or office holders shall be appointed as members under that subsection.

(5) The Authority shall, where a procuring entity is too small to constitute a Procurement Committee, determine the composition and the procedures to be followed by the procuring entity.

(6) A controlling officer or chief executive officer shall, in appointing members of a Procurement Committee, seek to establish a balance of skills and experience among the members to ensure that the Procurement Committee—

- (a) has an appropriate level of seniority, integrity and experience in decision making;
- (b) includes knowledge and experience in public procurement and other relevant professional disciplines; and
- (c) includes persons with knowledge and experience of the procuring entity's operations.

(7) Despite section 29, a controlling officer or chief executive officer shall, when appointing members of a procurement committee for the first time, appoint half the members for a tenure of two years to ensure continuity and rotation in the membership of the Procurement Committee.

28. (1) A Procurement Committee shall ensure that a procurement by a procuring entity is conducted in accordance with this Act.

Functions of Procurement Committee

(2) A Procurement Committee is responsible for providing prior authorisation of the procurement process in accordance with the procedure specified in section 34.

29. (1) A member of the Procurement Committee appointed by the controlling officer or chief executive officer under section 27(1)(b) shall hold office for a term of three years and may be reappointed for a further term of three years.

Tenure of office of Procurement Committee

(2) A controlling officer or chief executive officer shall inform the Authority of the membership of the Procurement Committee not later than fourteen days of the date of appointment of the Procurement Committee of any change in the membership of the Procurement Committee.

(3) A controlling officer or chief executive officer may terminate the appointment of a member of the Procurement Committee if that member—

- (a) abuses the member's office;
- (b) is involved or participates in corrupt or coercive practices;
- (c) is incompetent;
- (d) is legally disqualified;
- (e) is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Procurement Committee, of which the member has had notice, without the prior approval of the controlling officer or chief executive officer;
- (f) is convicted of an offence involving dishonesty; or
- (g) is adjudged or declared bankrupt.

(4) A controlling officer or chief executive officer may remove or substitute a member of the Procurement Committee prior to the expiry of the member's term of office where—

- (a) it is necessary to maintain a balance of skills and experience on the Procurement Committee in accordance with section 27(5);
- (b) the structure or status of the procuring entity has changed;
- (c) the position of a member has changed or the member has resigned; or
- (d) the member dies.

(5) Despite subsection (1), a controlling officer or chief executive officer may re-appoint a member who has served for six years for a further period of three years if a procuring entity lacks adequately qualified persons to replace that member.

Proceedings
of
Procurement
Committee

30. (1) Subject to this Act, a Procurement Committee shall regulate its own procedure.

(2) The quorum at a meeting of a Procurement Committee shall be half of its members.

(3) There shall preside at a meeting of the Procuring Committee—

- (a) the controlling officer; and
- (b) in the absence of the controlling officer, the person lawfully acting as controlling officer.

(4) Where a member is for any reason unable to attend any meeting of the Procurement Committee, that member may, in writing, nominate another person from the same department of the procuring entity which that member represents to attend the meeting in that member's stead and that person is deemed to be a member for the purposes of that meeting.

(5) Despite subsection (4)—

- (a) the proxies present for a particular meeting shall not exceed half the number of the appointed members; and
- (b) subsection (4) shall not apply to an external member appointed under section 27.

(6) A member or person who is present at a meeting of a Procurement Committee or a subcommittee of a Procurement Committee at which any matter, in which that person or that person's relative or associate, is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity is the subject of consideration, shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, disclose that interest and shall not take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question relating to that matter.

(7) A disclosure of interest made under this section shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

Subcommittees
and subdivisions
of
Procurement
Committee

31. (1) A Procurement Committee may establish a subcommittee—

(a) to provide procurement authorisation for a subdivision of a procuring entity, where the subdivision's procurement would be more effectively managed by a subcommittee; and

(b) to carry out particular functions of the Procurement Committee except that—

(i) the appointment of the members of the subcommittee shall meet the requirements of section 27; and

(ii) the Procurement Committee shall be responsible and accountable for the activities of a subcommittee.

(2) The Chairperson and secretary of a subcommittee established under subsection (1) shall be the head of the subdivision of the procuring entity and the person in charge of procurement activities of that subdivision of the procuring entity, respectively.

(3) Subject to this Act, a subcommittee shall regulate its own procedure.

(4) The quorum at a meeting of a subcommittee shall be one half of its membership.

(5) Despite subsection (4), the proxies present for a particular meeting shall not exceed half the number of the appointed members.

of
Procurement
Unit and functions

32. (1) A procuring entity shall establish a Procurement Unit which shall report directly to the controlling officer or chief executive officer and is responsible for managing procurement activities of the procuring entity in accordance with this Act.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the functions of a Procurement Unit are to—

- (a) plan the procurement activities of a procuring entity and recommend the appropriate method of procurement;
- (b) prepare solicitation documents, bid notices, short-lists, evaluation reports, contract award recommendations and contracts;
- (c) manage the bidding process, including pre-bid meetings, clarifications, receipt and opening of bids;
- (d) manage the evaluation of bids and any post qualification or negotiations;
- (e) manage contracts and oversee contracts management by the designated contracts manager;
- (f) prepare a procurement report required by the Authority, a controlling officer, chief executive officer or a Procurement Committee for the purposes of this Act;
- (g) submit a procurement report to the controlling officer or chief executive officer on a quarterly basis;
- (h) publish the contracting information in accordance with the procedure under this Act on the website of the procuring entity or the website set up by the Authority; and
- (i) ensure the completeness and accuracy of the data and information published on the procuring entity's website and the data and information shared by the procuring entity for publication on the website set up by the Authority.

Functions of user departments

33. The functions of a user department, in relation to procurement, are to—

- (a) provide information on forecast procurement requirements to the Procurement Unit for the purposes of procurement planning;
- (b) initiate procurement requirements;
- (c) participate in providing technical inputs to the standard solicitation documents prior to their issue;
- (d) represent the end user of the goods, works or services in the procurement process; and
- (e) manage contracts and assist the designated contracts manager as required.

Procurement
authorisation and levels of authority

34. (1) The following stages of the procurement process require the prior authorisation of the relevant approvals authority:

- (a) the use of the limited or direct bidding methods of procurement, except where direct bidding is on the grounds of the low value;
- (b) standard solicitation documents prior to their issue, on approval by the Authority;
- (c) evaluation reports prior to any further bid opening, the subsequent stage of evaluation or notification of award;
- (d) any other documents incorporating contract award recommendations, such as reports on negotiations, prior to notification of award;
- (e) amendments to contracts prior to their issue;
- (f) the cancellation of procurement proceedings; and
- (g) the termination of a contract.

(2) The approvals authority is the—

- (a) controlling officer or chief executive officer, where the value of the procurement does not exceed the prescribed level of authority; or
- (b) Procurement Committee for all other procurements.

(3) A controlling officer or chief executive officer shall, before the issuance of a contract, authorise the contract and ensure that the contract conforms to the contract award recommendations authorised by the Procurement Committee.

(4) A controlling officer or chief executive officer may delegate a level of authority, up to the maximum specified in subsection (2)(a), to any designated senior officer or officers, including the head of the Procurement Unit.

(5) A delegation made by a controlling officer or chief executive officer, under subsection (4) shall be in writing and copied to the head of the Procurement Unit.

(6) For purposes of subsection (2), the value of the procurement shall be—

- (a) the estimated value in the case of subsection (1)(a), (b) and (f) and technical evaluation reports in the case of subsection (1)(c);

- (b) the proposed contract value, in the case of subsection (1)(c) and financial evaluation reports in the case of subsection (1)(b); and
- (c) the original or amended contract value.

(7) A procuring entity shall, where the proposed or actual value of a contract exceeds the value originally estimated for the procurement and exceeds the level of authority of the approvals authority that authorised any previous stage in the procurement process, make a subsequent request for authorisation by the appropriate approvals authority, with details of the earlier stages and prior authorisation.

(8) The authorisation of the appropriate approvals authority shall be obtained for all subsequent stages of the procurement process.

(9) A procuring entity shall, where the proposed or actual value of a contract exceeds the threshold for a method of procurement, make a subsequent request for authorisation from the Authority to continue with the original method of procurement.

Procurement
of common use items

35. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Authority, by statutory instrument—

- (a) designate a central agency or central unit to procure common use items for a procuring entity or a group of procuring entities; and
- (b) specify the procedure to be used by the central agency or central unit, in determining common use items and designating procuring entities for the procurement of common use items.

(2) A procuring entity shall, until the Minister designates a central agency or central unit under subsection (1), procure common use items in accordance with this Act.

(3) For the purposes of this section, “central agency or central unit” means any Government or quasi-Government body that the Minister designates to procure common use items on behalf of a procuring entity under this section.

Use of
procurement agent or service
provider

36. A procuring entity may, in accordance with this Act, as prescribed, appoint an existing procuring entity as a procurement agent or procurement service provider to carry out procurement functions on its behalf.

PART V
METHODS OF PROCUREMENT

37. Subject to this Act, a procuring entity shall procure goods, works or services by a method which may include any of the following: Methods of procurement

- (a) open national bidding;
- (b) open international bidding;
- (c) open national selection;
- (d) open international selection;
- (e) limited bidding;
- (f) limited selection;
- (g) simplified bidding;
- (h) simplified selection;
- (i) direct bidding;
- (j) direct selection;
- (k) force account;
- (l) electronic reverse auction;
- (m) purchase from other procuring entities;
- (n) procurement of infrastructure from private financing and award of concessions; and
- (o) community participation.

38. (1) The objective of open bidding is to obtain value for money and promote private sector participation through the maximum possible competition. Open bidding

(2) Subject to this Act, a procuring entity shall use open bidding for the procurement of goods, works and non-consulting services.

(3) A procuring entity shall use open national bidding or open international bidding in accordance with section 39.

(4) Where a procuring entity uses a method of procurement other than open bidding the procuring entity shall include, in the record of procurement, a statement of the reasons and circumstances on which the procuring entity relied on to justify the use of the other method.

National and international bidding

39. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a procuring entity shall use open national bidding for procurement of goods, works and non—consulting services.

(2) Participation in open national bidding shall be limited to citizen bidders and in the absence of successful citizen bids to local bidders.

(3) A local bidder awarded a procurement contract in accordance with subsection (2), shall partner with a citizen supplier.

(4) A procuring entity shall use open international bidding where—

(a) the goods, works or non-consulting services are not available under competitive price and other conditions from at least three suppliers in the Republic; or

(b) regional or international participation is required in accordance with an agreement entered into by the Government.

(5) Participation in open international bidding shall be open to all bidders, including citizen bidders, local bidders and foreign bidders in partnership with citizen bidders or citizen suppliers.

(6) A foreign bidder who participates in open international bidding under subsection (5) shall partner with a citizen supplier or citizen bidder.

(7) Where open international bidding is used, a bid notice shall, in addition to the requirements under section 17, be published in any regional or international media and on the website of the procuring entity and the website set up by the Authority.

Open selection

40. (1) The objective of open selection is to promote private sector participation to obtain the best possible shortlist in order to obtain value for money.

(2) Subject to this Act, a procuring entity shall use open selection for the procurement of all consulting services.

National and international selection

41. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a procuring entity shall use open national selection in the procurement of consulting services.

(2) A procuring entity shall use open international selection where—

(a) the consulting services are not available under competitive price and other conditions from at least three suppliers in the Republic; or

(b) regional or international participation is required in accordance with an agreement entered into by the Government.

(3) Participation in open national selection shall be limited to citizen bidders and in the absence of successful citizen bids, to local bidders.

(4) Participation in open international selection shall be open to all bidders, including citizen bidders, local bidders and foreign bidders.

(5) Where open international selection is used a bid notice shall, in addition to the requirements under section 17, be published in any regional or international media and on the website of the procuring entity and the website set up by the Authority.

(6) A foreign bidder who participates in open international selection under subsection (4) shall partner with a citizen bidder.

42. (1) The objective of limited bidding is to obtain competition and value for money to the extent possible where the circumstances do not justify or permit the use of open bidding. Limited bidding

(2) Limited bidding may be used where—

(a) the goods, works or non-consulting services are only available from a limited number of suppliers; or

(b) there is an urgent need for the goods, works or services and engaging in open bidding would be impractical.

43. (1) The objective of limited selection is to obtain competition and value for money to the extent possible where the circumstances do not justify or permit the use of open selection. Limited selection

(2) Limited selection may be used where —

(a) the consulting services are only available from a limited number of suppliers; or

(b) there is an urgent need for the consulting services and engaging in open selection would be impractical.

44. (1) The objective of simplified bidding is to obtain competition and value for money to the extent possible, while maintaining economy and efficiency, where the circumstances do not justify the use of open bidding. Simplified bidding

(2) Simplified bidding may be used where the estimated value of the goods, works or non-consulting services does not exceed the prescribed threshold.

Simplified
selection

45. (1) The objective of simplified selection is to obtain competition and value for money to the extent possible, while maintaining economy and efficiency, where the circumstances do not justify the use of open selection.

(2) Simplified election may be used where the estimated value of the consulting services does not exceed the prescribed threshold.

Direct
bidding

46. (1) The objective of direct bidding is to achieve timely and efficient procurement, where the circumstances or value of the procurement do not justify or permit the use of competition.

(2) Direct bidding may be used where—

(a) the goods, works or non-consulting services are only available from a single source and no reasonable alternative or substitute exists;

(b) due to an emergency, there is urgent need for the goods, works or non-consulting services making it impractical to use other methods of procurement because of the time involved in using those methods;

(c) additional goods, works or non-consulting services must be procured from the same source because of the need for compatibility, standardisation or continuity;

(d) an existing contract could be extended for additional goods, works or non-consulting services of a similar nature and no advantage could be obtained by further competition;
or

(e) the estimated value of the goods, works or non-consulting services does not exceed the prescribed threshold.

Direct
selection

47. (1) The objective of direct selection is to achieve timely and efficient procurement, where the circumstances or value of the procurement do not justify or permit the use of competition.

(2) Direct selection may be used where—

(a) the consulting services are only available from a single source and no reasonable alternative or substitute exists;

(b) due to an emergency, there is urgent need for the consulting services, making it impractical to use other methods of procurement because of the time involved in using those methods;

- (c) additional consulting services must be procured from the same source because of the need for compatibility, standardisation or continuity; or
- (d) an existing contract may be extended for additional consulting services of a similar nature and no advantage could be obtained by further competition.

48. (1) The objective of electronic reverse auction, is to enable a procuring entity to seek competitive pricing by inviting pre-qualified suppliers to participate in a realtime dynamic online procurement proceeding.

Electronic
reverse
auction

(2) A procuring entity may use electronic reverse auction, if—

- (a) it is feasible for the procuring entity to formulate a detailed description of the subject matter of the procurement;
- (b) there is a competitive market of bidders anticipated to be qualified to participate in the electronic reverse auction, to ensure effective competition; and
- (c) the criteria to be used by the procuring entity in determining the successful bid are quantifiable and can be expressed in monetary terms.

(2) A procuring entity shall only qualify to use the reverse auction method if it has—

- (a) a procurement portal; and
- (b) an appropriate secure software with electronic procurement capabilities and functionalities approved by the Authority.

49. (1) The procedure for electronic reverse auction shall include the following:

Procedure for electronic
auction

- (a) the procuring entity shall solicit bids through an invitation to the electronic reverse auction to be published or communicated in accordance with this Act; and
- (b) the invitation shall, in addition to the information specified in section 63, include details relating to—
  - (i) access to and registration for the auction;
  - (ii) opening and closing of the auction;
  - (iii) norms for conduct of the auction; or
  - (iv) any other information that may be relevant to this method of procurement.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the Minister shall prescribe the other procedures relating to an electronic reverse auction.

Force
account

50. (1) The objective of force account is to permit a procuring entity to use its own resources, equipment and personnel to undertake some construction works, where force account is the only practical method of undertaking those works.

(2) The use of force account may be justified where—

(a) the quantities of work involved cannot be defined in advance;

(b) the works are small and scattered or in remote locations for which qualified construction firms are unlikely to bid at reasonable prices;

(c) work is required to be carried out without disrupting ongoing operations;

(d) risks of unavoidable work interruption are better borne by the procuring entity than by a bidder or supplier; or

(e) there is an emergency that requires prompt attention.

Purchases from other procuring
entities

51. (1) The objective of purchases from other procuring entities is to enable a procuring entity to fulfil a procurement requirement through purchase from or engaging the services of a Government agency where there would be no benefit in purchasing from or engaging a supplier that is not a Government agency.

(2) A procuring entity may, subject to a favourable price comparison, purchase directly from or engage a Government agency without the application of any other method of procurement, except that the Government agency must be able to meet the procuring entity's requirements as specified in the statement of requirements.

Procurement
of
infrastructure for private financing and award of concessions
Act No. 14
of 2009

52. A contract for the construction, rehabilitation or operation of public infrastructure and other public goods, services, concessions and comparable forms of contracting shall be subject to the procedures set out in the Public-Private Partnership Act, 2009 if it is financed by or through private sector participation based on the public-private partnership model.

- 53. (1) The Authority shall, adapt procurement procedures, specifications and contract packaging for purposes of project sustainability or achieve certain specific social objectives of the project, where it is desirable in selected project components to—

  - (c) employ labour intensive and other appropriate technologies.
- (2) The procedures under subsection (1) shall be prescribed.

Community participation in procurement

PART VI PROCUREMENT PROCESS

54. (1) A procuring entity shall use open bidding as the preferred procurement method for the public procurement of goods, works, services and for the purposes of the Republic.

Choice of procurement procedure

(2) A procuring entity may use an alternative procurement procedure if that procedure is allowed and satisfies the conditions under this Act for the use of that method.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), a procuring entity shall adopt open bidding for the procurement of goods, works and services for the prescribed threshold.

55. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a procuring entity may conduct a pre-qualification procedure as a basic procedure prior to adopting a procurement method other than open bidding for the purpose of identifying the qualified persons for the procurement.

Pre-qualification

(2) A procuring entity shall use a pre-qualification procedure for complex and specialised goods, works and services.

(3) A controlling officer or chief executive officer of a procuring entity shall, in conducting a pre-qualification procedure, publish an invitation notice to candidates to submit applications for pre-qualification.

56. (1) A procuring entity shall document procurement requirements prior to the commencement of any procurement proceedings, recording the goods, works or services required and the estimated value.

Commencement of procurement proceedings

(2) A procuring entity shall commence procurement proceedings only if the procurement is within the approved budget and the approvals authority has—

- (a) confirmed the availability of funding for the procurement requirement;
- (b) granted approval to proceed; and
- (c) in the case of procurement works, approved the proposed design.

(3) A person who knowingly commences or approves a procurement proceeding without ascertaining whether the procurement is within budget or funds are available for the procurement, commits an offence.

(4) Despite subsection (3), disciplinary action may be taken against a person who contravenes this section which may include—

- (a) an appropriate surcharge;
- (b) a demotion, where applicable; or
- (c) other disciplinary action that may be decided by the appropriate disciplinary authority.

Procurement
planning

57. (1) A procuring entity shall plan its procurement in a rational manner and, in particular—

- (a) aggregate its requirements wherever possible, both within the procuring entity and between procuring entities, to obtain value for money and reduce procurement costs;
- (b) make use of rate or running contracts wherever appropriate to provide an efficient, cost effective and flexible means to procure goods, works or services that are required continuously or repeatedly over a set period of time;
- (c) avoid splitting of procurement to defeat the use of appropriate procurement methods;
- (d) ensure that a procurement that is subject to a preference or reservation scheme is identified and dealt with in accordance with section 91; and
- (e) integrate its expenditure programme with the procurement plan.

(2) A controlling officer or chief executive officer of a procuring entity shall prepare and submit an annual procurement plan approved by a procurement committee to the Authority.

(3) The procurement plan under subsection (2) shall be prepared prior to the commencement of each financial year as part of the annual budget preparation process and shall be in the prescribed format and within the approved budget.

(4) Procurement planning shall be based on indicative or approved budgets.

(5) A procuring entity may prepare a multi-year procurement plan in the prescribed format which shall be consistent with the medium term budgetary expenditure framework for projects or contracts that go beyond one year as provided under the National Planning and Budgeting Act, 2020.

Act No. 1 of 2020

(6) An office holder commits an offence if that office holder knowingly approves procurement beyond the approved budget of the procuring entity.

58. (1) A procuring entity shall use one of the procurement methods specified in Part V.

Determination of procurement method

(2) Subject to section 38(4), the procurement method used by a procuring entity shall be determined in accordance with the conditions specified in this Part, taking into account—

- (a) the estimated value of the procurement;
- (b) whether the procurement is of goods, works, non-consulting or consulting services;
- (c) any special circumstances, such as a limited number of potential sources or an emergency requirement; and
- (d) whether national or international competition is required.

(3) A procuring entity shall not split procurement requirements with the intention of avoiding a particular method of procurement, where that requirement could be procured as a single contract.

59. (1) A procuring entity shall prepare a statement of procurement requirements relating to the goods, works or services being procured that —

Statement of procurement requirements

- (a) is clear;
- (b) gives a correct and complete description of what is to be procured;
- (c) allows for fair and open competition among persons who may wish to participate in the procurement proceedings; and
- (d) ensures that the goods, works or services are fit for the purpose for which they are being purchased and are of appropriate quality.

(2) The specific requirements shall include the procuring entity's technical requirements with respect to the goods, works or services being procured.

- (3) The technical requirements shall, where appropriate—
- (a) include and conform to design, specification, functionality and performance;
  - (b) be based on national or international standards whichever is superior;
  - (c) factor in the life of the item;
  - (d) factor in the socio-economic impact of the item;
  - (e) be environmentally sustainable;
  - (f) factor in the cost of servicing and maintaining the item; and
  - (g) factor in the cost of disposing of the item.
- (4) The technical requirements shall not refer to a particular trademark, brand name, patent, design, type, producer or service provider or to a specific origin unless—
- (a) there is no other way of describing the requirements; and
  - (b) the requirements allow equivalents to what is referred to.
- (5) A statement of procurement requirements shall be—
- (a) included in the solicitation document to inform bidders of the procuring entity's requirements;
  - (b) used in evaluation to determine whether a bidder meets the procuring entity's requirements, as specified in the solicitation document, and where appropriate, to determine the quality of the bid; and
  - (c) included in the contract to define the goods, works or services being purchased.
- (6) A statement of procurement requirements shall, to the extent possible, be based on the relevant, objective, technical and quality characteristics of the goods, works or services to be procured.

Solicitation documents

- 60. (1) A solicitation document shall be in the form issued by the Authority or any other document approved by the Authority.
- (2) A solicitation document shall contain—
- (a) clear instructions on the management of the procurement process and the applicable rules;
  - (b) a clear description of the object of the procurement in the form of a statement of requirements;

(c) a clear description of the eligibility requirements in respect of bidders and specification of documentary evidence required as proof of eligibility; and

(d) the proposed form and conditions of contract or a statement of the form and conditions of contract.

(3) A solicitation document shall clearly state the methodology and criteria to be used in the evaluation of bids and the determination of the best evaluated bidder.

(4) A procuring entity shall state in a solicitation document—

(a) whether the successful submission shall be ascertained on the basis of price or price and other criteria;

(b) the evaluation criteria, including price as modified by any preference;

(c) the relative weights of the evaluation criteria and shall list the evaluation criteria in descending order of importance; and

(d) the manner of application of the evaluation procedure.

(5) A procuring entity shall not take into account methodology or criteria, other than those stated in the solicitation document, and all methodology and criteria shall be applied equally to bids.

Selection of bidders

61. The method for selection of bidders shall be determined by the procurement method used and shall provide for the—

(a) publication of a bid notice for open bidding or a pre-qualification process;

(b) publication of a notice requesting expressions of interest in order to develop a shortlist for open selection;

(c) development of a shortlist for limited selection, simplified selection, limited bidding and simplified bidding; or

(d) selection of a single bidder for direct bidding or selection.

Invitation to bid

62. (1) A procuring entity shall keep a record of bidders to whom the solicitation document is issued.

(2) Where solicitation documents are issued to pre-qualified or shortlisted bidders, the documents shall be issued to the bidders at the same time.

(3) Bidding documents may be sold at a fee that may be prescribed by statutory instrument.

(4) A procuring entity shall, in setting bidding deadlines—

(a) allow sufficient time for bidders to—

(i) obtain solicitation documents;

(ii) prepare complete and responsive bids; and

(iii) submit bids; and

(b) comply with the minimum bidding periods as may be prescribed.

(5) A procuring entity may require a bidder to submit a bid security in the prescribed manner.

(6) A procuring entity shall require a bidder to submit sealed written bids, unless otherwise provided under this Act.

(7) The method for bid submission shall be as prescribed and shall take into account the method of procurement, the complexity of the procurement and the evaluation methodology used.

Bid security or bid securing declaration

63. (1) A controlling officer or chief executive officer of a procuring entity may, subject to requirements or limits as may be prescribed, require a bidder to provide a bid security or a bid securing declaration.

(2) A person submitting a bid shall forfeit a bid security if that person submitting the bid—

(a) withdraws the bid after the deadline for submitting bids but before the expiry of the bid validity period; or

(b) refuses to enter into a written contract as required under this Act or fails to furnish any required performance security.

(3) A procuring entity may, invoke the provisions of the bid security declaration form if a bidder does not comply with its requirements.

(4) A procuring entity may immediately release a bid security if—

(a) the procurement proceedings are terminated;

(b) the procuring entity determines that none of the submitted bids are responsive;

(c) a contract for the procurement is entered into; or

(d) a bidder declines to extend the bid validity.

(5) A bid security is not required in a procurement reserved for a small business enterprise and micro business enterprise owned by a woman, youth, person with disabilities and other targeted citizen or citizen group, participating in a procurement, except that the citizen or citizen group shall complete a bid securing declaration in the prescribed manner and form.

64. (1) A solicitation document shall clearly state the date, place and time of the bidding deadline and late bids shall be rejected.

Receipt of bids

(2) A procuring entity shall ensure that—

- (a) a bid box, or other means of receiving bids, is made available to bidders;
- (b) bids are kept confidential, and, in the case of sealed bids unopened, until the time for opening of bids; and
- (c) bidding is closed at the precise date and time of the bidding deadline and late bids shall not be accepted.

65. Open bidding, limited bidding, open selection and limited selection processes bids shall include a public bid opening, in accordance with the procedures as prescribed.

Opening of bids

66. (1) A procuring entity shall establish an evaluation committee for the purposes of electronic or non-electronic evaluation of bids.

Evaluation

(2) The composition, functions, procedures and sittings of an evaluation committee shall be prescribed.

(3) The evaluation methodology and criteria shall be done in accordance with this Act and may be determined by—

- (a) the type, value and complexity of the procurement;
- (b) the price;
- (c) the cost of operating, maintaining and repairing goods or of construction;
- (d) the time of delivery of the goods, of construction or provision of services;
- (e) the characteristics of the subject matter of the procurement;
- (f) the terms of payment and guarantees relating to the subject matter of procurement; or

- (g) where relevant, the experience, reliability and professional and managerial competence of the supplier or contractor and of the personnel involved in providing the subject matter of the procurement.
- (2) In addition to the criteria set out in subsection (1), the determination of the evaluation methodology may also take into account a margin of preference for the benefit of domestic suppliers or contractors or of domestically produced goods, or any other preference.
- (3) A procuring entity may request a bidder to clarify the bid in order to assist in the evaluation, but changes in the substance of the bid, including changes in price, shall not be permitted—
- (a) following a clarification under this section or other provisions of this Act; or
  - (b) after the date and time of the closing of the bid, unless otherwise provided for in this Act.
- (4) A procuring entity may correct arithmetical errors that are discovered during the examination of the submissions and shall promptly notify the bidder that presented the submission of that correction.
- (5) A procuring entity that corrects an error in terms of subsection (4) shall not make a—
- (a) substantive change to the qualification information or to a submission;
  - (b) change aimed at making an unqualified bidder qualified or an unresponsive submission responsive; or
  - (c) change aimed at making a qualified bidder or a responsive submission unresponsive.
- (6) A procuring entity shall not—
- (a) engage in a negotiation with a bidder with respect to qualification information or submissions; or
  - (b) make a change in price following a clarification under subsection (4) or other provisions of this Act.
- (7) A procuring entity may undertake a post-qualification procedure in accordance with the criteria in the solicitation document, to determine whether the best evaluated bidder has the capability and resources to effectively carry out the contract.

(8) A procuring entity shall prepare an evaluation report for submission to the appropriate approvals authority.

67. (1) A procuring entity may, where specified in the solicitation document, conduct a post-qualification of the best evaluated bidder to determine whether that bidder is qualified to perform the contract effectively.

Post-
qualification

(2) The criteria for post-qualification shall be set out in the solicitation document, as prescribed.

(3) A procuring entity shall, where it determines that a bidder is not qualified, reject the bid and conduct a post-qualification on the bidder who submitted the second best evaluated bid.

(4) A procuring entity shall, where a pre-qualification is conducted, use a post-qualification procedure to verify the information submitted by the bidder who submitted the best evaluated bid and if that bidder no longer meets the qualification criteria, the procuring entity shall reject that bidder and verify the qualifications of the next bidder.

68. (1) Subject to subsection (3), a procuring entity shall undertake negotiations with a successful bidder in accordance with the prescribed conditions and procedures.

Negotiations

(2) The negotiations undertaken under subsection (1) shall not relate to the price of the bid, except as provided under subsection (4) or where the price of the bid has not been taken into account in the evaluation methodology.

(3) The use of compound interest in a negotiation or contract is prohibited.

(4) A procuring entity may conduct negotiations as prescribed where—

(a) there is a tie in the lowest evaluated price by two or more bidders;

(b) there is a tie in the highest combined score points; or

(c) the lowest evaluated price is in excess of the available budget.

(5) The revised prices relating to a negotiation shall not compromise the quality specifications of the original tender.

Termination
cancellation
of
procurement
proceedings

69. (1) A procuring entity may, at any time, prior to notification of contract award, terminate or cancel procurement proceedings without entering into a contract if—

- (a) the subject procurement is overtaken by—
  - (i) operation of law; or
  - (ii) substantial technological change;
- (b) the procurement need has ceased to exist or changed significantly;
- (c) funding is not sufficient for the procurement;
- (d) there is a significant change in the required technical details, bidding conditions, conditions of contract or other details, such that the recommencement of procurement proceedings is necessary;
- (e) there is evidence of collusion among bidders;
- (f) it is otherwise in the public interest;
- (g) there is evidence of corrupt practices by an office holder or any other person involved in the procurement;
- (h) bids were not received;
- (i) there is evidence that prices of the bids are above market prices;
- (j) material governance issues are detected;
- (k) all evaluated bids are non-responsive; or
- (l) there is an incidence of force majeure.

(2) A procuring entity that terminates or cancels procurement proceedings under this section shall, within fourteen days from the date of the termination or cancellation —

- (a) submit to the Authority, a written report on the termination or cancellation stating the reasons for the termination or cancellation; and
- (b) notify, in writing, the person that submitted bids of the reasons for the termination or cancellation.

Decision to award
contract

70. (1) An award of contract shall be recommended to the best evaluated bidder, as determined by the evaluation methodology and criteria specified in the solicitation document.

(2) The decision to award a contract shall be taken by the appropriate approvals authority.

(3) A decision to award a contract by the approvals authority shall not constitute a contract.

71. (1) A procuring entity shall, within two days of a decision to award a contract, prepare a notice indicating the best evaluated bidder and the value of the proposed contract, and send the notice to bidders who submitted bids.

Notification of best evaluated
bidder

(2) A procuring entity shall award a contract after ten working days, from the date on which the notice under subsection (1) is sent.

(3) This section does not apply to procurement using—

- (a) simplified bidding;
- (b) simplified selection;
- (c) direct bidding;
- (d) direct selection; or
- (e) limited bidding on grounds of insufficient time.

72. (1) A solicitation document shall state the procedure for award of contract, which shall be by—

Award of
contract

- (a) placement of a written contract document; or
- (b) issue of a letter of bid acceptance, which shall be confirmed by the written contract.

(2) A contract, purchase order, letter of bid acceptance or other communication in any form conveying acceptance of a bid or award of contract shall not be issued prior to—

- (a) an award decision by the appropriate approvals authority in accordance with section 70;
- (b) publication and dispatch of the notice of best evaluated bidder in accordance with section 71;
- (c) confirmation that the procurement is not subject to review by the Authority;
- (d) confirmation that funding is available for the contract; and
- (e) any other approvals required, including clearance of the contract by the Treasury and the legal advice of the Attorney-General.

(3) A contract, purchase order, letter of bid acceptance or other communication issued contrary to subsection (2) is void.

(4) A procuring entity shall, where a standard contract is cleared by the Treasury and the Attorney-General in accordance with subsection (2), accept a bid or award a contract in the prescribed manner and form.

Standard contract

73. (1) A procuring entity shall use a standard contract approved by the Attorney-General and issued by the Authority or any other contract approved by the Authority.

(2) A procuring entity shall publish a notice of the contracts awarded which exceed the prescribed threshold within fourteen days of award of contract.

Prohibition from assigning contract

74. (1) A supplier to whom a contract is awarded shall not assign the contract to a third party.

(2) A supplier who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one million penalty units or to imprisonment for a term of ten years, or to both.

Notification of unsuccessful bidder

75. A procuring entity shall, before signing a contract, notify the other bidders that their bids have not been successful and shall give reasons for that decision.

Contract management

76. (1) A procuring entity shall appoint a contract manager for every contract awarded, who is responsible for —

(a) managing the obligations of the procuring entity specified in the contract; and

(b) ensuring that the supplier performs the contract in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in the contract.

(2) A contract manager shall be selected in accordance with the prescribed procedures, taking into account the skills, experience and functions required for management of the contract.

Amendment or variation of contract

77. (1) An amendment or variation to a contract shall not be effected without the approval of the Treasury and the legal advice of the Attorney-General.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), a proposed amendment or variation to a contract shall not be submitted to the Attorney-General without prior written authorisation of the appropriate approvals authority.

(3) An approvals authority may approve an amendment or variation proposed under subsection (2).

(4) The cumulative value of contract variation and amendment shall not result in an increment of the total contract price by more than twenty-five percent of the original contract price as prescribed, except that where the variation results in an increment exceeding twenty-five percent, the contract shall be cancelled and the procurement re-tendered.

(5) A controlling officer or chief executive officer shall submit a quarterly report of the varied or amended procurement contracts to the Authority.

(6) An office holder or approvals authority that contravenes subsection (5) commits an offence.

78. (1) A person shall not process final payment of a contract sum where a defects liability certificate or certificate of final completion has not been issued.

Defects liability certificate
and
payments

(2) The issuance of a defects liability certificate or certificate of final completion is prima facie evidence of the completion of works in accordance with the set standards.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

79. The Authority may, in a prescribed manner and form permit a procuring entity to deviate from the use of a public procurement method, rule, process or document—

Deviations

- (a) where exceptional requirements make it impossible, impractical or uneconomical to comply with the provisions of this Act;
- (b) where market conditions or behaviour do not allow the effective application of the procurement methods, rules, processes or documents; or
- (c) specialised or particular requirements are regulated or governed by international standards or practices.

80. The Authority may, in the prescribed manner, accredit an alternative procurement system where a procuring entity—

Accreditation of alternative
procurement
system

- (a) operates in a specialised field or discipline which requires an alternative system;
- (b) has a status which requires alternative or additional procedures; or
- (c) is required to use an alternative system to comply with the provisions of an international or other agreement.

(4) Qualifications shall be assessed by examining whether the bidder meets the qualification criteria.

(5) A point system for comparing the relative level of qualifications of participating bidders shall be applied as prescribed.

(6) A review of the qualifications of the bidders shall be conducted separately from the evaluation and comparison of bids.

(7) Where pre-qualification proceedings are not conducted, post qualification, in which the procuring entity ascertains the qualifications of the best evaluated bidder, shall be used.

91. (1) Despite section 13, a procuring entity shall, as prescribed—

Preference and reservation for schemes

- (a) grant a margin of preference for the benefit of bids by a target group offering goods, works or services manufactured or performed by the target group;
- (b) grant a prescribed margin of preference to a bidder offering goods, works or services with local content; or
- (c) reserve or set aside certain procurement requirements for a target group, by restricting bidding to the target group.

(2) A target group for any preference or reservation scheme shall be determined in accordance with Government economic and social policies and may include—

- (a) citizen or local suppliers;
- (b) goods, works or services manufactured in or provided from the Republic or a particular region or performed by citizens or persons from a particular region;

- (c) citizen suppliers in a particular industry or economic sector;
  - (d) small and medium sized enterprises;
  - (e) enterprises owned by women, youths or persons with disabilities; or
  - (f) any other group designated by Government policy.
- (3) The Authority may, in consultation with the Government bodies responsible for economic and social policy, formulate a preference or reservation scheme as prescribed.
- (4) A preference or reservation scheme shall state—
- (a) the target group and eligibility requirements;
  - (b) the percentage of the preference, where applicable;
  - (c) the period for the operation of the scheme; and
  - (d) the objectives of the scheme and the means of measuring its effectiveness in achieving those objectives.
- (5) Where a margin of preference is granted to citizen or local suppliers—
- (a) greater preference shall be granted to citizen suppliers, than local suppliers, with no preference to foreign suppliers;
  - (b) the preference to be accorded shall be proportional to the percentage of the contract to be actually executed by citizen or local suppliers; and
  - (c) greater preference shall be granted where citizen or local suppliers form part of a joint venture or association agreement, than where they are subcontracted by foreign suppliers.
- (6) The Authority may, in consultation with the relevant authorities, recommend other measures to facilitate private sector participation in public procurement and to further the development of economic capacity in the Republic, as prescribed.

Participation of public body or company in
procurement

92. A public body or company in which the Government has a majority or controlling interest is eligible to participate as a bidder or supplier in public procurement in accordance with this Act.

Subcontracting policy

93. (1) A procuring entity shall, for the purposes of this Act and any other written law, require a foreign bidder or supplier to subcontract a percentage of the total value of the procurement for all procurements of goods, works and services exceeding the prescribed thresholds to citizen bidders and suppliers.

(2) The Minister shall, in consultation with the Authority, prescribe the percentage of the total value of the procurement to be subcontracted.

(3) A foreign bidder or supplier shall apply the following methods of subcontracting depending on the nature, complexity, urgency and value of the main contract:

(a) domestic subcontracting; or

(b) nominated subcontracting.

(4) The manner of implementation of a subcontracting method under subsection (3) shall be as prescribed.

(5) For the purposes of this section—

“domestic subcontracting” means a subcontracting method where a bidder selects a subcontractor to engage; and

“nominated subcontracting” means a subcontracting method where the procuring entity or procuring entity’s representative selects a subcontractor through a competitive process, as prescribed, and instructs the bidder to engage that selected subcontractor.

94. (1) The Authority shall maintain a system, in the form of a database or list, to provide centralised information on potential suppliers of goods, works and services.

Supplier
database or list

(2) Subject to section 16, the electronic government procurement system shall be the source for the database established under subsection (1).

(3) The registration of potential suppliers who are foreign bidders shall, on an application to the Authority by that bidder, be done at the place where a bidder participates in a bidding process in the Republic.

(4) A potential supplier shall register on the electronic government procurement system.

(5) Where an application is made under subsection (3), a procuring entity may, within five days of the application, register a potential supplier on the database or list.

(6) The Authority shall regularly publicise—

(a) the existence of the database or list;

(b) procedures for registering and updating entries on the database or list;

(c) the conditions to be satisfied for entry on the database or list and the documentary evidence required; and

(d) the period of any registration and requirements for updating entries.

(7) An entry in the database or list shall not be subject to any eligibility criteria other than that set out in section 89.

(8) The registration of bidders shall be undertaken by the Authority as a continuous process.

(9) A database or list maintained by the Authority under this section shall be reviewed and updated on a regular basis.

(10) The Authority operating a system or database under this section shall notify potential suppliers of—

(a) their inclusion in the database or list;

(b) any rejection of a request to register and the reasons for that rejection; and

(c) their removal from the database or list and the reasons for such removal.

Suspension
of bidder or
supplier

95. (1) The Authority may, on its own motion or on the recommendation of an investigative agency, procuring entity or institution, suspend a bidder or supplier from participating in public procurement on the grounds specified in section 96.

(2) A bidder or supplier shall not be suspended except where—

(a) notice in writing is given to the bidder or supplier of the grounds for the proposed suspension and the details of the alleged grounds;

(b) an opportunity is given to the bidder or supplier to respond to the alleged grounds; and

(c) an investigation of the facts of the case is undertaken by the Authority.

(3) A suspension imposed under subsection (1) shall not be less than one year and shall not exceed five years.

Grounds for suspension
of bidder or
supplier

96. A bidder or supplier shall be suspended from participating in procurement where the bidder or supplier has—

(a) offered, given, or agreed to give, directly or indirectly an inducement or anything of value to a public officer to influence an act, decision or proceeding of a procuring entity;

- (b) provided false information in a bid or any other document submitted to a procuring entity in connection with a procurement process or contract;
- (c) connived to interfere with the participation of other bidders;
- (d) refused to sign a contract or to furnish a performance security in accordance with the terms of the solicitation document and bid, if required to do so;
- (e) assigned a contract to a third party;
- (f) failed to comply with a bid securing declaration; or
- (g) non-performance or under performance of contractual obligations except that the non-performance or under performance is not due to any force majeure.

97. (1) The Authority may, on its own motion or on recommendation of a law enforcement agency, procuring entity or institution, permanently prohibit a bidder or supplier from participating in public procurement on the following grounds:

Permanent
bar of bidder
or supplier

- (a) committing an offence relating to procurement under this Act or any other law;
- (b) giving false information about the bidder's or supplier's qualifications;
- (c) misconduct relating to the submission, evaluation and awarding of bids, including corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practices, price fixing, a pattern of underpricing of bids and breach of confidentiality;
- (d) conviction of a criminal offence relating to obtaining or attempting to obtain a contract or subcontract;
- (e) conviction of a crime related to business or professional activities; or
- (f) any other grounds as prescribed.

98. A procuring entity shall reject a bid, proposal, offer or quotation of a bidder or supplier if the bidder or supplier offers, gives or agrees to give, directly or indirectly an inducement or anything of value to an office holder to influence an act, decision or proceeding of a procuring entity.

Rejection of bid,
proposal,
offer or quotation

Appeal against suspension

99. A bidder or supplier aggrieved by a decision of the Authority to suspend the bidder or supplier from participating in public procurement or over any other matter under this Act may submit the matter to arbitration within ten days of the Authority's decision to suspend.

PART X

APPEALS

Appeal of decision by procuring
entity

100. (1) A bidder or supplier who is aggrieved with a decision made by a procuring entity under this Act may appeal against the decision to the Authority.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be made in the prescribed manner on payment of the prescribed fee.

(3) The Authority shall not accept an application made under this section unless it is submitted within ten working days from the date the bidder submitting the application was informed of or became aware of the circumstances giving rise to the application or from the date the bidder should have become aware of those circumstances, whichever is earlier.

(4) Unless an application is dismissed or resolved by mutual agreement between the applicant and the procuring entity, the Authority shall—

(a) on receipt of the application, institute an investigation;

(b) ensure that no contract award is made prior to the resolution of the application; and

(c) issue a written decision, within ten working days after the submission of the application.

(5) A decision issued under subsection (4) (c) shall state—

(a) whether the application is upheld, in whole or in part or dismissed;

(b) the reasons for the decision; and

(c) any corrective measures that are to be taken by the procuring entity or the bidder.

(6) A bidder or supplier who is aggrieved by the decision of the Authority may submit the matter to arbitration under section 101 within ten working days of the Authority's decision.

101. Any dispute over a matter or decision made under this Act shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the provision of the Arbitration Act.

Dispute to be determined by arbitration Act No. 19 of 2000

PART XI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

102. (1) The objective of a framework agreement is to enable a procuring entity make an arrangement with a selected supplier or identified contractor to procure goods, works and services whose quantities and delivery schedules are not defined or determined in the procurement process.

Framework agreements

(2) A procuring entity may enter into a framework agreement through open tender if—

(a) the procurement value is within the thresholds prescribed under this Act; and

(b) the required quantity of goods, works or services cannot be determined at the time of entering into the agreement.

(3) The maximum term for a framework agreement shall be three years and, for agreements exceeding one year, a value for money assessment shall be undertaken annually to determine whether the terms designated in the framework agreement remain competitive.

(4) When implementing a framework agreement, a procuring entity may—

(a) procure through call-offs order when necessary; or

(b) invite mini competition among persons that have entered into the framework agreement in the respective category.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4)—

“call-offs order” means an order made using a framework agreement with one or more contractors, suppliers or consultants for a defined quantity of works, goods, consultancy covering terms and conditions including price that users require to meet the immediate requirements.

(6) An evaluation committee shall evaluate bids under the category specified in subsection (4) (b).

(7) A procurement unit shall prepare procurement reports every quarter with an analysis of items procured through framework agreements and these reports shall include an analysis of pattern of usage, procurement costs in relation to the prevailing market rates and any recommendations.

(8) A procurement undertaken through a framework agreement may be subject to preferences and reservations provided for in this Act.

Code of conduct      103. The Authority may promulgate a code of conduct to regulate office holders, bidders and suppliers involved in public procurement of goods, works and services.

Conduct of bidder and supplier      104. (1) A person participating in public procurement of goods, works or services shall—

(a) abide by the obligations under this Act, the contract and other instruments applicable to the person's conduct and activities related to public procurement; and

(b) not commit or abet corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practices.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

Act No. 3 of 2012      (3) A person who commits an act of corruption shall be prosecuted in accordance with the provisions of the Anti-Corruption Act, 2012

Offences      105. (1) A person commits an offence if that person—

(a) without reasonable excuse fails or refuses to give information, or produce any document, record or report required under this Act;

(b) assaults, resists or obstructs any officer or employee of the Authority, or any other authority exercising monitoring and oversight functions over public procurement, in the exercise of their functions under this Act;

- (c) contrary to this Act, interferes with or exerts undue influence on any officer or employee of the Authority or a procuring entity in the performance of their functions or in the exercise of the powers under this Act;
  - (d) conspires to raise prices or lower the quantity or quality of goods, services or works for procuring entities that intend to acquire products or services through a bidding process;
  - (e) in the case of an electronically submitted bid, alters, modifies, intercepts or deletes information; or
  - (f) certifies substandard goods or works that are incomplete, non-existent, or whose quality is below the specifications contained in the contract.
- (2) An office holder commits an offence if that office holder—
- (a) due to recklessness or dishonesty, fails to exercise the powers as an office holder and to discharge duties in accordance with this Act;
  - (b) uses the position as an office holder dishonestly or with the intention of directly or indirectly gaining an advantage for oneself or someone else or causing detriment to a procuring entity;
  - (c) subject to the Penal Code Act, uses the position as an office holder recklessly without regard to whether the conduct may directly or indirectly gain an advantage for oneself or someone else or cause detriment to a procuring entity; Cap. 87
  - (d) uses information obtained because of the position as an office holder to gain an advantage for oneself or someone else or cause detriment to a procuring entity;
  - (e) tampers with a bid, including any document or item submitted with the bid, by opening, burning, tearing, destroying, or partially burning, tearing or destroying, altering, erasing, falsifying or rendering incomplete or misleading information;
  - (f) publishes or discloses information relating to procurement of assets, other than in the proper and authorised course of duties as an office holder; or
  - (g) contravenes or wilfully fails to comply with this Act.

(3) A person convicted of an offence under subsection (2), is liable to the applicable administrative and legal sanctions applicable to office holders under the office holders conditions of employment and any other written law.

(4) Without limiting the generality of subsection (3), the Authority may, where an office holder contravenes this Act, recommend to the employer appropriate administrative and legal sanctions on the office holder, including—

(a) disciplinary proceedings;

(b) suspension from employment;

(c) demotion;

(d) surcharge;

(e) transfer or refusal of transfer;

(f) summary dismissal; or

(g) any other recommendation that the Authority may consider appropriate.

(5) Despite subsection (4), the Authority may refer the case of an erring office holder to an appropriate law enforcement agency or professional body.

Limitation of liability of controlling officer or chief executive officer

106. Where a controlling officer or chief executive officer of a procuring entity satisfies the Authority, or other relevant oversight or enforcement body, that the controlling officer or chief executive officer had, in accordance with this Act delegated functions to another person or body or committee, that other person and every member of that body or committee shall be accountable for any failure to comply.

General penalty

107. A person who commits an offence under this Act for which a penalty is not specified is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

Offence by principal officers of body corporate and unincorporate body

108. Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate or unincorporate body, with the knowledge, consent or connivance of the director, manager, shareholder or partner of the body corporate or unincorporate body, that director, manager, shareholder or partner commits the same offence as the body corporate or body unincorporate and is liable, on conviction, to the penalty specified for that offence.

109. (1) A court may order a person to compensate a procuring entity for any damage or loss suffered by the procuring entity, if the damage or loss resulted from an offence committed by the person. Compensation

(2) Any compensation ordered under subsection (1) is a civil debt due to the procuring entity.

110. The Authority may, where a procuring entity contravenes this Act, transfer its procurement function to a body or procurement agency appointed by the Authority, until the Authority is satisfied that the causes of the contravention have been rectified by the procuring entity. Transfer of functions of procuring entity to other body

111. (1) The Authority may issue public procurement circulars and instructions to provide further guidance on the interpretation and application of this Act. Circulars and publications

(2) The Authority shall publish, for public information, texts of this Act, regulations, circulars, standards and directives of general application and the list of bidders and suppliers who are suspended or prohibited from participating in public procurement.

112. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Authority, by statutory instrument, make regulations for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act. Regulations

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), regulations made under this Act may provide for the—

- (a) publication of notices, pre-qualification, development of short-lists and selection of single bidders;
- (b) management of the bidding process, including pre-bid meetings, clarification and amendment of solicitation documents and the withdrawal, modification and substitution of bids;
- (c) use of a procurement procedure structured as two or more procurements;
- (d) sanctions imposed on office holders that incur loss from that office holder's actions;
- (e) use of information and communication technologies, including the use of an e-procurement system or website set up by the Authority and the publication of data and information in open data formats;
- (f) evaluation criteria;
- (g) maintenance of procurement records;
- (h) circumstances amounting to an emergency;

- (i) form and manner of appointment of a procurement agent;
- (j) procurement thresholds;
- (k) manner of conducting negotiations;
- (l) form and manner of preparing multi-year procurement plans;
- (m) fees and charges to be levied and paid in respect of any matter or thing required or permitted to be done for the purposes of this Act;
- (n) forms to be used for the purposes of this Act and the manner in which applications are to be made;
- (o) types of contract to be used;
- (p) amount to be paid by an office holder for the loss resulting from that office holder's actions; and
- (q) socio-economic impact of any procurement and environmental sustainability.

Repeal of
Act No. 12
of 2008

113. (1) The Public Procurement Act, 2008 is repealed.

(2) Despite subsection (1), every order, direction or appointment issued, given or made under the provisions of the repealed Act shall be valid until otherwise cancelled, revoked or varied under the provisions of this Act.

(3) A person who immediately before the commencement of this Act held office as Director, Secretary or employee of the Authority shall continue to hold that office as Director, Secretary or employee of the Authority as if appointed under this Act.

(4) The service of the staff of the Authority referred to under subsection (3) shall be treated as continuous service.

(5) The Director-General appointed under the repealed Act shall continue to hold office as if appointed under this Act subject to the terms and conditions of appointment and is eligible for reappointment for a further term.

(6) A person who immediately before the commencement of this Act held office as a member of the former Board or member of a Committee of the Board shall hold office as a member of the Board for a period of three months after which the Minister shall appoint the members of the Board in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(7) A procuring entity, which at the commencement of this Act is unable to use the electronic government procurement system shall comply with the provisions of this Act within three years of commencement of this Act.

(8) The Second Schedule applies to the matters specified in that Schedule.

FIRST SCHEDULE
(Sections 5 (3) and 7(3))

ADMINISTRATION OF THE AUTHORITY

PART I
BOARD OF AUTHORITY

1. (1) The seal of the Authority is a device that may be determined by the Board and shall be kept by the Secretary.

Seal of Authority

(2) The affixing of the seal shall be authenticated by the Chairperson or the Vice-Chairperson and the Secretary or any other person authorised in that behalf by a resolution of the Board.

(3) A contract or instrument which, if entered into or executed by a person not being a body corporate, would not be required to be under seal, may be entered into or executed without seal on behalf of the Authority by the Secretary or any other person generally or specifically authorised by the Board in that behalf.

(4) A document purporting to be a document under the seal of the Authority or issued on behalf of the Board shall be received in evidence and shall be executed or issued, as the case may be, without any further proof, unless the contrary is proved.

2. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, a member of the Board shall hold office for a period of three years from the date of appointment and may be reappointed for a further period of three years.

Tenure of office and vacancy

(2) Subject to the other provisions of this Part, a member shall, on the expiration of the period for which the member is appointed, continue to hold office until another member is appointed to succeed that member.

(3) The office of a member becomes vacant—

(a) on the member's death;

(b) if the member is adjudged bankrupt;

(c) if the member is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Board of which the member has had notice, without the prior approval of the Board;

(d) on the expiry of one month's notice of the member's intention to resign from office, given by the member in writing to the Board;

(e) if the member ceases to hold the office which qualified that member for appointment;

(f) if the member becomes mentally or physically incapable of performing the duties of a member of the Board; or

(g) if the member is convicted of an offence under this Act or any other written law and sentenced to imprisonment for a term of six months or more.

(4) A member may resign from office by giving not less than one month's notice in writing to the Board.

(5) Where the office of a member becomes vacant, another person shall be appointed in the place of the member who vacates office in accordance with subparagraph (1), and such member shall hold office for the remainder of the term.

Proceedings
of Board

3. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Board may regulate its own procedure.

(2) The Board shall meet for the transaction of business, at least once in every three months at such places and times as the Chairperson may determine.

(3) The Chairperson may, upon giving notice of not less than fourteen days, call a meeting of the Board and shall call a special meeting upon receiving a written request from at least five members of the Board.

(4) If the urgency of any particular matter does not permit the giving of the notice required under subparagraph (3), a special meeting may be called by the Chairperson upon giving a shorter notice.

(5) Seven members of the Board shall form a quorum.

(6) There shall preside at any meeting of the Board—

(a) the Chairperson;

(b) in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson;
and

(c) in the absence of both the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson, such member as the members present may elect from amongst themselves for the purpose of that meeting.

(7) A decision of the Board on any question shall be by a majority of votes of the members present and voting at the meeting and, in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have, in addition to a deliberative vote, a casting vote.

(8) Where a member is for any reason unable to attend any meeting of the Board, the member may, in writing, nominate another person from the same organisation to attend such meeting in that member's stead and such person shall be deemed to be a member for the purpose of that meeting.

(9) The Board may invite any person whose presence is in its opinion desirable to attend and to participate in the deliberations of a meeting of the Board but such person shall have no vote.

(10) The validity of any proceedings, act or decision of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership of the Board or by any defect in the appointment of any member or by reason that a person not entitled so to do, took part in the proceedings.

(11) The Board shall cause minutes to be kept of the proceedings of every meeting of the Board and every meeting of any committee established by the Board.

4. (1) The Board may, for the purpose of performing its functions under this Act, establish such committees as it considers necessary and delegate to those committees any of its functions.

Committees

(2) The Board may appoint as members of a committee constituted under subparagraph (1), persons who are or are not members of the Board and such persons shall hold office for such period as the Board may determine.

(3) A committee of the Board may regulate its own procedure.

5. (1) A Procurement Committee shall ensure that a procurement by a procuring entity is conducted in accordance with this Act.

Functions of
Procurement
Committee

(2) A Procurement Committee is responsible for providing prior authorisation of the procurement process in accordance with the procedure specified in section 34.

6. There shall be paid to members of the Board or members of a committee of the Board such allowances as the Emoluments Commission may, on the recommendation of the Minister, determine.

Allowances
of members

7. An action or other proceeding shall not lie or be instituted against a member of the Board or a committee of the Board, or a member of staff of the Authority for or in respect of any act or thing done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise or performance of any of the powers, functions or duties conferred under this Act.

Immunity of members and staff of Authority

Disclosure of interest

8. (1) A member or person who is present at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board at which any matter, in which that person or that person's relative or associate, is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity, is the subject of consideration shall, as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, disclose that interest and shall not, unless the Board or the committee otherwise directs, take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question relating to, that matter.

(2) A disclosure of interest made under this paragraph shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

Prohibition of publication of,
or disclosure of information to unauthorised
persons

9. (1) A person shall not, without the consent in writing given by or on behalf of the Board, otherwise than in the course of duties of that person, publish or disclose to any other person, the contents of any document, communication or information, which relates to, or which has come to the knowledge of that person in the course of that person's duties under this Act.

(2) A person who contravenes subparagraph (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

(3) A person who, having any information which to the knowledge of that person has been published or disclosed in contravention of subparagraph (1), unlawfully publishes or communicates the information to any other person, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or to both.
